APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Students studying at a partner university of the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) are eligible to apply as an exchange student for the International Asian Studies Programme. All student exchange applications must be endorsed by home universities before they are submitted to the Office of Academic Links. Students should approach the Study Abroad Office of their home university for a nomination if they are interested in going on exchange at CUHK.

Admission Requirements

Admission to study at CUHK is open to students of any nationality with sufficient command of either Chinese or English. If you are from institutions where English is not the primary language of instruction and intend to take courses taught in English at CUHK, you should have a minimum TOEFL score of 530 (paper-based) / 197 (computer-based) / 71 (internet-based) or IELTS 6 or equivalent. Students should be currently enrolled in or have graduated from a university recognised by CUHK. No prior study of the Chinese language or Chinese or Asian studies is required.

Undergraduate students should have:

- completed at least two academic terms of university studies;
- a minimum TOEFL score of 530 (paper-based) / 197 (computer-based) / 71 (internet-based) or IELTS 6 or equivalent;
- a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (B average or better), although applications with a slightly lower GPA will be carefully assessed. (Applicants from institutions not using the GPA system will be judged on their overall academic performance.)

Postgraduate students should have:

- obtained a recognised bachelor's degree or equivalent;
- a minimum TOEFL score of 530 (paper-based) / 197 (computer-based) / 71 (internet-based) or IELTS 6 or equivalent;
- a minimum grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (B average or better), although applications with a slightly lower GPA will be carefully assessed. (Applicants from institutions not using the GPA system will be judged on their overall academic performance.)

Important points to note

Students who are interested in taking law courses at CUHK should observe the course enrolment requirements, in particular, the English language requirements, as stated at http://www.oal.cuhk.edu.hk/index.php/study-abroad-a-exchanges-for-visiting-students/term-time-exchangestudy-abroad/study-at-cuhk/programme-information#Course_information.

Application Deadline

	Application Deadline
For First Term Admission (September – December)	April 1
For Second Term Admission (January – May)	October 2

Application Record Sheet

Students must click the Submit button at the top right-hand corner of their online application form in order to get access to the Application Record Sheet in the My Application page of the online form.

Supporting Documents

All applicants should submit the following supporting documents for their application:

- An academic recommendation (in either English or Chinese),
 - If your cumulative GPA is 3.0 out of 4 or over (or minimum B in average or equivalent), you are not required to submit the academic recommendation.
 - If your cumulative GPA is less than 3.0 out of 4 (or below B in average or equivalent), please submit one letter of recommendation from a professor. Ask the recommender to mail the completed form directly to The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK). The recommendation form can be downloaded from <http://www.oal.cuhk.edu.hk/files/incoming/recommendation.pdf>.
- Official transcripts or official English translation of transcripts (if transcripts are issued in any language other than English) from all institutions attended. The grading scale (in English) must also be provided (usually appears on the back page of the transcript).
- A photocopy of the identification/particular page of your national passport

Additional documents (if applicable):

- Official TOEFL/IELTS score (taken within two years of application). If their home institution does not use English as a primary language of instruction, applicants should provide a TOEFL/IELTS score report or a written support from the Study Abroad Office at their home institution.
- Scores from achievement tests (e.g., SAT, GRE).
- A photocopy of your Hong Kong Permanent Identity (HKPID) Card, if any. (Students who have a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card do not need to apply for a student visa for their studies at CUHK. However, our office does not know that you are a HKPID Card holder, our staff will bill you a student visa application fee if your application is successful. You are strongly advised to provide a photocopy of your HKPID card in order to have the fees waived.)

Office of Academic Links

All exchange applicants should submit a copy of their completed online application form, application record sheet and supporting documents to the Study Abroad Office of their home Institution for forwarding to the following Regional Programme Officer of the Office of Academic Links (OAL), CUHK by email (one pdf file for each student) before the application deadline:

Regional Programme Officers (OAL, CUHK)

- Ms. Heidi O – Europe and South Africa: heidio@cuhk.edu.hk
- Ms. Joey SO – Asia and Oceania: joeyso@cuhk.edu.hk
- Mr. Louis WONG – Americas: louiswong@cuhk.edu.hk

A Note for Students Applying through International Student Exchange Program (ISEP)

Students apply as exchange student through ISEP must indicate the following in the Section 3 (Current or Latest Study) of the online application form:

Institution: International Student Exchange Program (ISEP)
(Please specify the name of the home university in the next textbox)

Important Points to Note

- Application to exchange programme does not guarantee any course registration. Courses offered by the Faculty of Business Administration and Faculty of Law are very popular. Students should be flexible in their course selection.
- Transcripts of International Asian Studies Programme (IASP) will only be available for mailing 2 months after the last day of the term.
