This document is a complex record, likely a list of names or a detailed report, written in cursive Japanese calligraphy. It features several prominent vertical titles and a central emblem. The titles include:

- On the far left: 中村 欽六 (Nakamura Kinroku)
- Below it: 市川 欽六 (Ichikawa Kinroku)
- To the right: 市川 欽六 (Ichikawa Kinroku)
- Further right: 市川 欽六 (Ichikawa Kinroku)
- On the far right: 市川 欽六 (Ichikawa Kinroku)

The central emblem consists of a crown (crown) above a square symbol (square symbol), which is a common motif in certain historical or official documents. The main body of the text is densely packed with handwritten characters, organized in vertical columns, suggesting a list or a detailed record.
