The Stockholm-Tsukuba International Program for Central Asian Studies

Workshop on

Central Asian History – Vision and Revision

1–2 October 2008

at

Department of South and Central Asian Studies, Stockholm University and

Museum of Ethnography, Stockholm

Workshop on

Central Asian History – Vision and Revision

1 October 2008

10 – 17

at

Department of South and Central Asian Studies
Stockholm University

A Word of Welcome in the Gunnar Jarring Library

Birgit Schlyter & Timur Dadabaev

Coffee

Historical Perspectives on Central Asian Studies in Japan

Hisao Komatsu, Tokyo

LUNCH
(12 – 13.30)

Visions Revised? Autonomization at the Heart of the System: Central Asian Social Sciences (1945–1991)

Vincent Fourniau, Paris/Bordeaux

The Search for New Historiographies in Central Asia: Educating the Future Generations after Independence

Yunus Emre Gürbüz, Ankara

Coffee

The Coverage of Central Asia in Turkey: Political, Cultural and Educational
Büşra Ersanlı, Istanbul

Workshop on

Central Asian History – Vision and Revision
(Cont.)

2 October 2008

10 – 17

at

Museum of Ethnography, Stockholm

Methodological and Conceptual Aspects of an Oral History Project in Uzbekistan and Kyrgyzstan

Timur Dadabaev, Tsukuba

On Remembering the Soviet Past in Kyrgyzstan: A Case Study in Oral History

Guljanat Kurmangaliyeva Ercilasun, Istanbul/Bishkek

Coffee

The Impact of Tradition on National and Religious Identification in Modern Uzbek Society

Shakhnoza Madaeva, Tashkent

LUNCH
(13 – 14)

The Central Asian Collections at the Museum of Ethnography, Stockholm

Håkan Wahlquist, Stockholm

Central Asian Manuscripts at the Museum of Ethnography, Stockholm

Staffan Rosén, Stockholm

Coffee

A Film from the Last Sven Hedin Expedition, 1927–1935